WE BELIEVE THAT ART TRANSFORMS LIVES

MAKE A DIFFERENCE

Leave BALTIC a gift in your will and we can continue to inspire, connect and engage audiences with some of the most exciting contemporary art in the world.

Hundreds of thousands of people walk through the gallery doors every year to be greeted with some of the most inspiring artworks in the world. Contemporary art is about contemporary life and has the power to connect and engage audiences in a personal way, opening minds and finding new possibilities.

Leaving BALTIC a gift will make certain we can deliver a world class programme that inspires children, parents and grandparents alike to discover different lenses on the world and different ways of thinking.

We firmly believe that everybody should be able to access and enjoy the arts. Your generosity will ensure this for future generations in the years to come.

REMEMBER BALTIC IN YOUR WILL

There are a number of ways you can choose to leave a gift in your will, including:

- Pecuniary: a fixed sum of money
- Specific: a particular named item, for example, a painting, building or land
- Residuary: the amount left over after all other costs, for example, funeral expenses, have been deducted
- Reversionary: a gift to a loved one for use during his or her lifetime which can then be passed on to a specified charity after this time

Leaving a gift in your will is an effective, lasting contribution without any immediate outlay. Legacies left to charities are free from inheritance tax, which could result in your tax bill being reduced.

If you have already made a will, you can simply add an amendment known as a codicil, which BALTIC can supply for you.

Leaving a gift in your will is an important decision to make. BALTIC recommends that you consult with a solicitor who will advise you on how to write or amend your will.
