BALTIC

NEW PRINT BY ELIZABETH PRICE EXCLUSIVELY AVAILABLE AT BALTIC

BALTIC Centre for Contemporary Art, Gateshead is delighted to announce a new BALTIC Edition *MOONSHINE:K created by the Turner Prize winning and internationally acclaimed artist Elizabeth Price.

Born in 1966 in Bradford, Price is renowned for her immersive video installations incorporating digital moving image, text and music. She won the Turner Prize in 2012 for her twenty-minute video installation The Woolworths Choir of 1979, as part of her exhibition at BALTIC, HERE 2012.

MOONSHINE:K features a group of sculptures in the garden of the Villa Medici, Rome. The sculptures vary in age and provenance, but were gathered together to create a single mis-en-scene by Balthus, the painter and former Director of the Villa. Price has photographed the arrangement under a 'super moon' - a moon of unusual brightness, which heightens the noir-ish melodrama of the tableau. The 'K' is a symbol, used scientifically to denote light temperature, and used by Price in a series of works exploring light source in digital photography and projection.

The print MOONSHINE:K is a platinum palladium print specially produced by Elizabeth Price, it is a limited edition series of 50 prints, which are signed and numbered by the artist and available in store at BALTIC SHOP or online at balticmill/shop for £395

Works can be bought using the Own Art scheme in store at BALTIC SHOP, offering an easy and affordable way to spread the cost of purchase over 10 months with an interest free loan.
